Celebrating the Immortal Jesus as the Resurrection Community of Justice and Mercy

Jesus, the majestic Word of God
From all eternity, Humbled himself to serve us,
Even when we had no claim upon the divine Mercy.
Now he rules the universe,
Forever joyful in his victory over Death on our behalf.
As his mighty resurrection inspires our joy,
So it constrains us to love justice and practice mercy,
To rise cheerfully to the occasion
Of serving and defending others.
In this we follow the great example
Of our once-suffering, now-glorified Servant King,
Who is coming to establish a Perfect Justice in the earth!
Bless his high Name. Alleluia!

Call to Worship Micah 6:6-8

With what shall I come before the LORD, and bow myself before God on high?

Shall I come before him with burnt offerings,
with calves a year old?

Will the LORD be pleased with thousands of rams,
with ten thousands of rivers of oil?

Shall I give my firstborn for my transgression, the fruit of my body for the sin of my soul?"

He has told you, O man, what is good;

and what does the LORD require of you?

but to do justice, and to love kindness,
and to walk humbly with our God.

Old Testament Lesson    Isaiah 58:6–10

Confession of Sin                    (based on Amos 2 and Proverbs 31)

O Lord, we confess that we have sold the righteous for silver, and the needy for a pair of sandals—

That we trample the head of the poor into the dust of the earth and turn aside the way of the afflicted;

We pervert the sexuality which you have given us as a gift,
so that Your holy name is profaned;

We lay ourselves down beside every idol: money, sex, power, security, possessions;

We build our sense of security on the backs of the poor,
And we pervert your Church with our self-centeredness.

We become drunk with our self-importance and forget what has been decreed;
And pervert the rights of the afflicted.

We do not open our mouth for the mute,
for the rights of all who are destitute,
or defend the rights of the poor and needy.

O Lord, we confess that we are all poor and needy.
But in our material wealth we have become proud,
and look down on those who would teach us humility,
and dependence on You.

Forgive us, O Lord, we cry! Amen.

Individual Confession

Absolution

Isaiah 43:1-5

But now thus says the LORD, he who created you, O Jacob, he who formed you, O Israel: "Fear not, for I have redeemed you; I have called you by name, you are mine. When you pass through the waters, I will be with you; and through the rivers, they shall not overwhelm you; when you walk through fire you shall not be burned, and the flame shall not consume you. For I am the LORD your God, the Holy One of Israel, your Savior. I give Egypt as your ransom, Cush and Seba in exchange for you. Because you are precious in my eyes, and honored, and I love you, I give men in return for you, peoples in exchange for your life. Fear not, for I am with you; I will bring your offspring from the east, and from the west I will gather you.

Thanksgiving Hymn

Behold the Lamb

Behold the Lamb who bears our sins away
Slain for us and we remember
The promise made that all who come in faith
Find forgiveness at the cross
So we share in this Bread of Life
And we drink of His sacrifice
As a sign of our bonds of peace
Around the table of the King

The body of our Savior Jesus Christ
Torn for you eat and remember
The wounds that heal the death that brings us life
Paid the price to make us one
So we share in this Bread of Life
And we drink of His sacrifice
As a sign of our bonds of love
Around the table of the King

The blood that cleanses every stain of sin
Shed for you drink and remember
He drained death's cup that all may enter in
To receive the life of God
So we share in this Bread of Life
And we drink of His sacrifice
As a sign of our bonds of grace
Around the table of the King

And so with thankfulness and faith we rise
To respond and to remember
Our call to follow in the steps of Christ
As His body here on earth
As we share in His suffering
We proclaim Christ will come again
And we'll join in the feast of heaven
Around the table of the King

Response Hymn    Come People of the Risen King

Come people of the Risen King
Who delight to bring Him praise
Come all and tune your hearts to sing
To the Morning Star of grace
From the shifting shadows of the earth
We will lift our eyes to Him
Where steady arms of mercy reach
To gather children in

Chorus

Rejoice! Rejoice! Let every tongue rejoice!
One heart one voice
O Church of Christ rejoice!

Come those whose joy is morning sun
And those weeping through the night
Come those who tell of battles won
And those struggling in the fight
For His perfect love will never change
And His mercies never cease
But follow us through all our days
With the certain hope of peace

Chorus

Come young and old from ev'ry land
Men and women of the faith
Come those with full or empty hands
Find the riches of His grace
Over all the world His people sing
Shore to shore we hear them call
The truth that cries through ev'ry age
Our God is all in all

Confession of Faith

The Nicene Creed, Masai Version

Christians, what do you believe?

We believe in the one High God, who out of love created the beautiful world and everything good in it. He created man and wanted man to be happy in the world. God loves the world and every nation and tribe on the earth. We have known this High God in the darkness, and now we know him in the light. God promised in the book of his word, the Bible, that he would save the world and all nations and tribes.

We believe that God made good his promise by sending his son, Jesus Christ, a man in the flesh, a Jew by tribe, born poor in a little village, who left his home and was always on safari doing good, curing people by the power of God, teaching about God and man, showing that the meaning of religion is God's love. He was rejected by his people, tortured and nailed hands and feet to a cross, and died. He was buried in the grave, but the hyenas did not touch him, and on the third day, he rose from that grave. He ascended to the skies. He is the Lord.

We believe that all His people's sins are forgiven through him. All who have faith in him must be sorry for their sins, be baptized in the Holy Spirit of God, live the rules of love, and share the bread together in love, to announce the good news to others until Jesus comes again. We are waiting for him. He is alive. He lives. This we believe. Amen."

Communion in Christ Jesus

All Christians are invited to join us to receive Christ's presence of bread and wine. During this time of social distancing we offer for our pastor to come and bless your partaking of elements you provide to preserve the corporate-presence of Christ pictured in the supper as best we can. If you've been part of our streaming service please text Curran (203-812-9928) to set up a time he can meet you (from a distance) to celebrate communion.

Sinclair Alleluia

Prayer for those searching

Oh God, I am discovering that the more I have, the more I need to have, the more I am loved, the more I need to be loved, the more I achieve, the more I need to achieve. Nothing seems to satisfy me. Could it be, as someone once said, that "Our hearts are restless until they find their rest in thee." Dear God, if this is true, and if as the Bible teaches there is life and life eternal in Christ alone, please guide me to Him. Open me to the reality of the One who alone can satisfy my restless heart. Give me the courage to believe that which I cannot see but can understand, feel and touch through the Word, sacraments and church family. Lord I want to believe, help my unbelief! Amen.

7

1. O God, your judgments give the King, his son your righteous-ness;
 2. The people's poor ones he shall judge, the needy's children bless;
 3. His large and great dominion shall from sea to sea extend;
 4. Now blessed be the Lord our God, the God of Israel, with right he shall your people judge, your poor with upright-ness.

 and he will break in pieces those who would the poor oppress.
 it from the River shall reach forth to earth's remotest end.
 for he alone does wondrous works in glory that excel.

And then the mountains shall bring forth to all the people peace;
 The just shall flourish in his days, and prosper in his reign;
 Yea, kings shall all be before him bow, all nations shall obey;
 And blessed be his glorious name to all eternity.

7

the hills because of righteousness their blessing shall increase.
 and while the moon endures he shall abundant peace maintain.
 he'll save the needy when they cry, the poor who have no stay.
 The whole earth let his glory fill; amen, so let it be.

Coronation Hymn

Benediction          2 John 1:3

Grace, mercy, and peace will be with us, from God the Father and from Jesus Christ the Father's Son, in truth and love. Amen.

REFLECTION

The Empty Tomb, Justice and Mercy

Christians have been accused of lots of things: having their head in the sand, being culturally irrelevant, being preoccupied with middle class “consumerism.” Too many of us believers, too often, are probably guilty as charged.

And yet, stepping back and looking at the bigger picture, it is striking that, through the centuries, where human needs have been genuinely served, it is Christians who have so often been there. To be sure, there are all sorts of service organizations and relief efforts in the world that were not founded and are not run by Christians. But it’s arguable that Christianity has been the main inspiration behind the development of the modern “charitable organization” in the West. Who took in the infant girls left outdoors to die by hard-hearted fathers in the Greco-Roman world of the first century? Christians. Who founded orphanages, hospitals, and homes for physically and mentally disabled people in every age? Christians. Who reached out to the poor urban class created by the Industrial Revolution in the early 1800’s? Christians. Who fought for the freedom of black slaves in England and America in the 18th and 19th centuries? Christians. Who rescued young girls sold into prostitution in India and pressured the government there in the 19th century to outlaw the barbaric practice of burning widows after their husbands died? Christians. Who is reaching out to unwed mothers in the 21st century with crisis pregnancy clinics and adoption services and is fighting for the rights of unborn children? Christians. Who started some of the most effective “relief agencies” to respond to people devastated by natural disasters? Christians are...

It’s true that Christians have sometimes been the cause of social problems: it was Christians, largely, who enslaved black Africans. And often our service has been paternalistic and condescending. But still it’s true that wherever the risen Christ breaks into the lives of men and women, he inspires them to defend the weak and to show mercy to those around them by giving love, time, money.

What's the connection between resurrection and practicing mercy and fighting for justice? It’s simple. Those who have grasped that they are loved so much by God that he gives them an eternal share in the immortal life of Jesus Christ can afford to be generous and think about the well-being of others. They love Christ in return for his love. They want to obey his command that as he served them—and was not ruined by putting others first—so his followers should walk in his footsteps and serve others.
